

Chocolate Making at Farris & Foster's

Date: Thursday, October 29, 2009

Time: 6:30 PM – 8:30 PM (Please be 15 minutes early as we will start exactly at 6:30 PM)

Where: Farris and Foster's Chocolate Factory

www.farrisandfosters.com

4875 New Broad St.

Orlando, FL 32814

407-770-1607

What: This activity will have our teenagers with autism making chocolate.

Siblings: Sibling participation will only be allowed after we know how many teenagers will be participating

Cost: There is no cost for the 1st pound of chocolate. However, anything over 1 pound is $14.00 and must be paid for by the parent.

Goals:

1. Appropriate hygiene prior to beginning.
2. Wearing of gloves, hat, and apron.
3. Listening skills as there are lots of directions given before commencing with the chocolate making.
4. Pouring of chocolate into molds, making of truffles and other candy.
5. Weighing the candy to insure that it does not exceed 1 pound.
6. Using the conveyer belt and other utensils in the chocolate making area.
7. Patience and turn taking as all items must be shared.

As you can see, this activity is going to be very exciting and can help our individuals with autism prepare for any kind of food service employment. I am very excited about this activity and am anxious to share it with all of you.
